John Bond, a certified public accountant, has practiced for 25 years in the firm’s accounting and auditing area. John specialized during most of that time in the manufacturing and construction industries, with significant experience in accounting and reporting on employee benefit plans.

John has conducted numerous nontraditional engagements, including due diligence, litigation support and agreed-upon procedures engagements. He has also participated in several initial public offerings.

For the past five years, John has worked in the firm’s quality control department, reviewing financial statements and accountants’ reports of the firm’s assurance engagements. John assists clients and the firm’s staff with all aspects of financial reporting, including footnote and accounting policy disclosure.

A member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Tennessee Society of Certified Public Accountants (TSCPA), John is licensed to practice public accounting in the state of Tennessee.

John received a Bachelor of Arts from Western Kentucky University. In 1983, he received a Master of Business Administration from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga, where he was initiated into the Sigma Iota Epsilon Honorary Management Fraternity.
