John Cummings, CPA, is an assurance supervisor with more than 16 years of combined experience in public and private industry accounting. Prior to joining Decosimo, John served as an assurance manager for a large Atlanta accounting firm and also spent 8 years serving in a controller capacity for Fortune 500 companies that are world leaders in construction and financial services.

With significant experience serving the construction industry, John is a key member of Decosimo's construction specialty team. Applying his extensive knowledge of the industry-specific accounting and financial management issues, he has served as the lead auditor on numerous construction attestation engagements, including general contractors, highway and heavy construction companies, electrical contractors and international construction companies. John attends annual conferences and seminars, such as the the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) Construction Conference, to stay up-to-date on the construction industry's latest challenges, trends and regulations. He is also active with the Surety Association of Georgia and the Construction Financial Management Association.

In addition to his role with the assurance engagements, John serves on Decosimo's transactional services team and has participated in numerous buy-side arrangements for a diverse range of industries including technology, distribution, and professional services. John has provided transaction advisory services to private equity groups, as well strategic buyers, by performing accounting and financial due diligence in connection with mergers and acquisitions. As a professional service provider, he strives to add value for his buyer, private equity group, attorney or lender clients by applying his understanding of private and public accounting best practices, as well as knowledge of specialized industry trends.

John is a member of the AICPA, the Georgia Society of Certified Public Accountants (GSCPA). He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from the University of Alabama.
