Rose Decosimo is an Assurance Principal with more than 20 years experience in public accounting. She provides audit services to public companies, nonprofit organizations and privately held businesses in industries including financial institutions, hospitality and manufacturing.

Rose attends the annual American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) National Conference on Banks and Savings Institutions and the FDIC-Regulator Roundtable in Atlanta each summer. She also attended the AICPA National Banking School at the University of Virginia.

Currently, Rose is a member of the AICPA, the Tennessee Society of Certified Public Accountants (TSCPA) and the Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA). She is also a member of the TSCPA's Women's Initiatives Committee and the Moore Stephens Assurance Special Interest Group.

Her community service commitments include volunteering on the boards of WTCL and the Hospice of Chattanooga Foundation, as well as Siskin Hospital for Physical Rehabilitation where she serves as the audit committee chair. Rose's prior community service includes board service for numerous nonprofit organizations, as well as serving on parent and advisory committees for several local schools and higher education institutions.

Rose holds a Master of Business Administration from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga (UTC) and a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing from the University of Tennessee at Knoxville. She is a certified public accountant licensed to practice in the state of Tennessee and is also an inactive registered nurse. In 2009, Rose was named the Accountant of the Year by UTC's Beta Alpha Psi Society.
