Larry Stone directs the firm's training programs and has over 12 years experience training staff on topics from new staff orientation to software applications. He also has over 25 years experience providing accounting and auditing services to manufacturers, not-for-profit organizations, governmental units, electrical contractors, private clubs, vending and distribution companies and medical services providers.

Larry is involved in various civic and professional activities and has served as president of Senior Neighbors of Chattanooga, the Association for Visual Arts, New Life Homes for Boys, and the Chattanooga Chapter of the Tennessee Society of Certified Public Accountants (TSCPA). He currently serves on the TSCPA's Professional Development Committee. He has also served on the boards of the local chapters of the American Red Cross and the American Lung Association, among others. Larry is a member of the Chattanooga Kiwanis Club.

Larry earned bachelor's degrees in English and Music from Furman University in 1979, and taught public school English before entering Georgia State University to complete his accounting studies. He became a Certified Public Accountant in 1985 and earned the Certified Professional in Learning and Performance certification in 2012.
